Hello December, Hello Finals Season,

And just like that, we're almost at the end of this semester! It's important to acknowledge the hard work and dedication that you displayed throughout these challenging months. As you prepare for the upcoming final exams, here are some key points to help you navigate this crucial period effectively:

1. Strategic planning:

- Organize your study material systematically, prioritizing topics based on their importance in the exams.
- Create a realistic study schedule that accommodates all subjects, allowing for focused review sessions.

2. Collaboration and support:

- Study in groups to tackle challenging concepts, and benefit from different approaches to solving a problem.
- Seek guidance from professors, TA's, or classmates when faced with difficult topics.
- Utilize Piazza, Ed Discussions, office hours, review sessions whenever possible

3. Practice with past papers:

- Familiarize yourself with the exam format by practicing past papers and sample questions.
- Analyse the solutions critically to understand the thought process and enhance your problem-solving skills.

4. Balanced well-being:

- Prioritize self-care by eating healthy and sleeping reasonable hours every day
- Take short breaks during study sessions to refresh your mind. (Prevents burnouts!)

You've demonstrated remarkable dedication, and your hard work will undoubtedly pay off. Wishing you the best of luck for all your finals !!
